

Bringing hope to children and families since 1852

Healing children.
Helping families.
Hope for the future.

Since 1852, Beech Brook has been a beacon of hope for children and families. From prevention and education to more intensive treatment programs, Beech Brook helps children and supports families through these and other services in Summit County:

Outpatient Counseling – mental health services for children and teens and their families

Youth Mentoring – guidance, activities, tutoring and companionship for children and teens dealing with moderate emotional and behavioral issues

School-Based Mental Health Services – therapy and support for students struggling with emotional and behavioral issues

REACH – mental health support for children and families at home and in the community and linkage to other services and resources

Beech Brook's Mission

To advance the well-being and self-sufficiency of children, youth and families by providing effective, innovative physical and behavioral health, permanency, educational and related services and by serving as a strong voice for children, youth and families.
